

Students

Reports to Parents

The fundamental purpose of reporting shall be to share with the child and his/her parents/guardians, through planned conferences and written reports, the teacher's best professional judgment concerning the student's progress. Teachers are responsible to see that their reports include student achievement, social development and work habits.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes

10-15b Access of parent or guardian to student's records

46b-56 Access to records of minor children by noncustodial parent

Policy adopted: September 8, 2003

STAFFORD PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Stafford Springs, Connecticut