And Other Benefits For

Sound Financial Planning.

Northeast Family

Your Best Financial Friend

MISSING SOMETHING?

You've made a great choice with your interest in Northeast Family Credit Union. Whether you're a member already or about to become one, there is a wealth of products and services you can take advantage of.

Like other financial institutions, our credit union offers personal financial services like savings, checking, and loans. But unlike other financial institutions, the credit union is a democratic, not-for-profit financial cooperative dedicated to serving its members.

The Credit Union provides competitive lending and savings rates, reasonable fees, and personal service just to name a few of the many benefits you will experience with your membership.

Family Membership for Life

Once you join the Credit Union, you're a member for life. Even if you change jobs, your membership will continue in full force.

Additionally, anyone in your immediate family is also eligible. This includes your parents, children, siblings, and spouse.

People You Can Count On

If you ever have a question or concern regarding your Credit Union accounts, don't hesitate to give us a call at 860-646-8870 or email nefamily@nefamily.coop
